THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

The chief of the Soviet Control Commission (SCC) Section in Potsdam is Rassadin (fnu). There seems to be some confusion among the Russians about the official status of the former SCC personnel, at least as far as titles and official designations are concerned. Since the proclamation of the sovereignty of East Germany, officially there is neither an SCC nor a Soviet High Commission (SHC). Actually, however, the apparatus continues to exist and exercise all control functions as before.
Rassadin is apparently still being called "the representative of the Soviet High Commissioner for Brandenburg".
